XIII AUSTRALIAN MASTERS GAMES

ADELAIDE 7-16 OCTOBER 2011

Are you participating in the City to Bay? Why not continue your training regime through to October and participate in Australia's largest multisport event – the 13th Australian Masters Games!

Join thousands of competitors that will converge on Adelaide to take part in one or more of the 60 sports available in 10 days of competition. Competitors include everyone regardless of background and ability, the only requirement is that you meet the minimum age, which is 30 years for most sports.

The Games are about participation, not elite sport, and encouraging lifelong participation in sport. With 60 sports on offer, there is a sport for everyone. You can enter as an individual, enter a team or enter and be placed into a team. It's a great opportunity to spend time with friends and meet new people. While competition is important, one of the key attractions of this unique event is the social interaction and spirit of camaraderie experienced by participants. There's an entire social program including an Opening Ceremony, Closing Ceremony and a variety of nightly entertainment that will be held at the exclusive City of Adelaide Games Village. The City of Adelaide Games Village, located in central Adelaide, will be the hub of social activity throughout the Games. Games participants will have plenty of time to enjoy the festivities, both on and off the field!

The City to Bay could be your platform to winning gold at the 13th Australian Masters Games. Get to the website, get into training and get in the game!
